

Man escapes drowning in snowmobile accident

Herbert Cook of 74 Gates Avenue, Toronto, Ontario was fortunate to escape with his life when his snowmobile went through thin ice in the narrows at the south end of Gull Lake last week.

Mr. Cook was southbound on Gull Lake when his ski-door came into the narrows and plunged into six feet of icy water.

Fortunately Mr. Cook's wife, who was travelling behind him on another snowmachine, was able to summon help from Larry Mittelstaedt and Gordon Hull, both of Pickering, who were repairing their broken down snowmobile nearby.

Mr. Mittelstaedt and Mr. Hull were forced to break into a cottage to procure the necessary rope and chain to drag Mr. Cook to safety.

Mr. Cook was then transferred to the Minden Red Cross Hospital for observation. As well as suffering from severe exposure, Mr. Cook is known to have heart problems.

This incident was investigated by Constable Mike Hickey of the Minden Detachment of the O.P.P.

Dogs seen chasing deer

A spokesman for the Minden Detachment of the O.P.P. tells us that in the area north of Minden several house dogs have been seen chasing deer.

He warns that these dogs may be shot if found chasing deer out of season. This is the time of year when the does are carrying their young, and they don't have a chance of survival if pursued by these dogs.

Unfortunately there is someone minus a pet in this area, because it was shot when chasing deer on the weekend.

Where is your pet tonight? Please remember - To keep it safe, keep it tied.

Haliburton Newsletter

We are hoping for more snow for the Haliburton Winter Carnival. Head Lake is frozen over but we need the snow for the snowmobilers.

A number of people were on hand at the Coliseum in Toronto recently for the horse drawing contest. Murray Cowen of Haliburton had a team entered in both the light draft and heavy draft classes. Although he was not in the prize money his horses put up a great showing. Entries were on hand from all parts of Canada and the United States.

The Haliburton County Snowmobile Association has another dance planned for the Haliburton Legion Hall for Saturday March 16.

There will be three separate luncheons at this year's winter Carnival. The Campers' Breakfast at the Legion Hall on Saturday morning 8.30 - 10.00 a.m. The Carnival Luncheon Buffet at the Anglican church on Saturday at noon till 1.30 p.m. On Sunday at 12.30 p.m. it's the Toquepic Luncheon at the United Church Hall.

The Rotary Club of Haliburton will be holding its meeting of Feb. 28 at the Hyland Crest Senior Citizens Home at Minden.

Each month a draw is held at the Royal Canadian Legion at Haliburton for a prize of $75.00. The second draw held this month was won by Mr. Ray Le Sarge of Highland Grove. The lucky ticket was No. 20.

The next draw will take place at March meeting of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 129.

The Haliburton Fire Department which is a very efficient unit are always on the alert and ready when the fire alarm sounds.

In speaking with Fire Chief Howard Roberts this week he informed the Echo that its been a long time since they have been called out fight a fire.

The last fire that they were called to was back on Dec. 20. This is good news for everyone.

Four girls entered in beauty contest

During the week of Feb. 4, 1974 the Grade 11, 12 and 13 students classes chose representatives from each class for the Mini Beauty Contest, as part of the Haliburton Winter Carnival Queen Contest.

On the afternoon of Feb. 7, the following finalists were chosen: Judi Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cooper, Stanhope; Wendy Gough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gough, R. R. # 2, Minden; Beth Irwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Irwin, Haliburton and Patti Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Morrow, Haliburton.

Tim Toye (alias Theresa Toye) of Stanhope Township, was a late entry and received a surprisingly strong vote. Unfortunately for this contestant, the students were selecting a Queen and not a Bon Homme Carnivales!

These young ladies are now the contestants to be judged on Feb. 22, at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School Carnival Dance. The winner will be named Haliburton Winter Carnival Queen. The other three girls will act as her Princesses.

The Haliburton Rotary Club is providing sports outfits for each contestant, to be purchased from Bernsteins, Cox's Apparel, The Pine Shop and Pollard's. The Queen will also receive $50.00 from the Haliburton Rotary Club and a charm bracelet from Varty's Jewellery Store.

The Queen and Princesses will be attending the parade, luncheons, dinners and various other Winter Carnival activities during the weekend of Feb. 22.

Man put on probation

Gary Warburton, 31, of R. R. 1, Minden pleaded not guilty to charges of resisting arrest and failing to produce identification Sept. 23 in Lindsay, at Lindsay Provincial Court.

Judge Ian Munro told Warburton to obey the law as a citizen of this country. He told the accused that if he did not keep control of his temper he would do himself physical harm, which is not good for a heart already in a delicate position.

Warburton was put on probation for one year, provided he is of good behavior, keeps the peace and reports to the probation officer once a month. For failing to produce a licence he was fined $20 and costs, or five days default.

Clowns will play women

In the above photo two visitors are seen viewing the grounds around the old Bethal Church near Minden. The church which was built in 1891 is a real landmark and each year visitors by the hundreds in the area visit this historic building. During the past two years the old building has been hit by vandalism and as a result the Kinsmen Club of Minden have paid for the cost of boarding up the windows and doors.

The Chamber of Commerce has had hopes of renovating the building but due to lack of funds the project has been postponed for the time being.

Letter

To the editor:

It would appear that the proposed re-instatement of the Bounty on Wolves by the Haliburton County Council, is prompted by something other than the desire to protect the sheep and cows in the area. The mention of incorporating a Wolf Hunt into the Winter Carnival activities leads to the suggestion that someone stands to gain a tidy profit. It is wondered how many of the council members who are backing this project own or have interest in a Hunting Camp?

It has been demonstrated in Minnesota, that wolves must live within a ratio to deer of 300 to 1, and if this ratio is maintained, they will bother little with domestic livestock. It has also been demonstrated that a wolf is very loathe to breed with domestic dogs, so it would seem that any talk of Hybrid Wolves ravaging the countryside, is highly (hysterical?) exaggerated.

Each year about this time, there is a burst of outrage against the wolves, who are laying waste to vast quantities of deer and livestock. It seems more than coincidence, that this raving follows closely after countless dogs are lost during the hunting season. I am sure that there is no one person who has not heard of some hunter losing his hound in the bush - a hound mind you, whose sole purpose in life is chasing deer.

Wolves are self-regulating in their killing and eating of deer - hounds, unfortunately are not.

I would propose to Council men who would see the return of the mercenary decimation of the wolf population, that they re-direct their energies into insuring that hunters become more responsible about their dogs, and then perhaps, we will see an end to the seemingly useless slaughter of deer and livestock.

Another possibility would be the raising of the status of the wolf to that of a game animal, like the deer, with limited season for a specified time period, during which only a specific number of tags would be sold. This would satisfy those who feel wolves are a threat, and yet would still ensure the survival of the species.

Drownings also occur in winter

We tend to think of drowning as a summertime hazard. While it is true that the majority of people drowned in Canada each year meet death in the late spring and summer months, almost 10 percent of drownings occur in winter.

From November 1972 through March 1973 almost 120 people died by drowning in Canada. Many of these fatal accidents took place on ice-covered lakes, ponds and rivers.

Skaters ventured onto ice too thin to bear their weight; hunters took imprudent short cuts; snowmobilers, lured by wide open expanses on frozen waterways did not stop to think of the weight of their machines.

Last winter was a particularly bad one for ice safety. Cold snaps were followed by unseasonal thaws. This type of weather pattern creates what is called "rotten" ice—ice which appears solid but which is actually honeycombed with air pockets. Ice which was safe for sports only a few days earlier, was safe no longer.

The Canadian Red Cross Water Safety Service, concerned by the high toll last winter has some tips and reminders for winter sports fans this season.

"Ice safety starts with a check of conditions," says Al Thiessen, National Director of the Canadian Red Cross Society Water Safety Service. "This check should take place every time, before you go on the ice. Currents, temperature changes, rain all affect the solidity of an ice surface. If you're not sure about an ice surface, stay off it."

KEEPING HOUSE ISN'T THAT HARD

Women, as any man can tell you, are a mixed blessing. And every woman is a different mix.

Some are like beer. They slake your thirst, but make you feel a bit logey, and you wind up with a headache. Others are like an 8 to 1 martini: cold, very dry, and they hit you right between the eyes.

This is an interesting metaphor, but I think I'll pursue it some other day. Like when Women's Lib has crumbled back into a cringing sounding-board for male egos. Don't hold your breath waiting for that column.

Anyway, there I was, living the happy, blissfully peaceful, sordid life of a guy who is batching it. Newspapers all over the floor, ash-trays looking like Mount Vesuvius, dishes in the sink piled so high I couldn't see the taps. Cosy, like.

My wife seemed to be so fascinated by her grandson that I thought this idyllic existence might go on for months. I'd make a duty call every second night or so, and, as a matter of course, ask her if she missed me. "No", she'd reply cheerfully.

One night I got carried away, and told her that I missed her. Ah, fatal error. "You do?", she chirruped.

"Yeah. Well, you know. It's not the same without you," thinking of the facts: a pile of soiled socks; down to my last shirt, the one with the peekaboo look where the seams are ripped; nothing but TV (eccccc!) dinners for the last four days.

She took another, romantic meaning, and it didn't help when I added, in jest, "Yep, and I'm sick of that big, strapping blonde I had to hire to do the housework. Maybe she's only 28, but I think that bosom of hers is practically obscene. She should be in burlesque."

My wife was home on the next bus. It didn't seem to help her normally furious disposition that I was out curling when she arrived.

She was completely unsympathetic when I got home at midnight and explained the hour by telling her that I'd had to go through the usual exchange of chewing gum, inanities and recipes for cheap wine that we male curlers have to put up with after each game.

She was reading a book when I came in. Dangerous sign. "Hello, Bill", without looking up. Icicles. Proffered kiss was offered a forehead. Then the dam broke.

The deluge began as a low, penetrating monotone, and built up into something closely akin to a fire siren.

"How can you be so filthy?" This was the theme of the ensuing monologue, during which your faithful servant stood around with rosebud mouth and baby blue eyes agape, an innocent and a broad.

Now, look. There wasn't a dirty dish in sight (though she did find some in the cellar-way.) I'd run the carpet sweeper over a couple of dirty-grey spots on the rug. I have no sense of smell, so how could I know that the whole joint smelled like a cat-house? I hadn't made the bed for three weeks, but, hell, we changed our sheets only once a month in prison camp. So, O.K., her plants were dead, but who can think of watering plants when his mind is filled with the anguish of the human race and whether or not the Leafs are going to make the playoffs?

What am I supposed to do, just because her feet go "Squish, squish", when she walks around the kitchen floor? It never bothered me. I wore my toe-rubbers.

Dust? What dust? As she writes her name on the coffee table.

Beer bottles? What beer bottles? They're all down the cellar except those three on the counter.

I was pretty hurt and disappointed, I can tell you. I had sweated and slaved and torn my guts out for at least twenty minutes, sprucing up the place so she wouldn't have a mess to come home to.

I didn't make that mess behind the downstairs toilet and then pull the toilet-lid cover down to hide it. The cat did.

I didn't break that saucer in her favorite coffee set. The cat did.

I didn't put that burn-hole in the rug. It was the cat. He was smoking a cigar-butt he'd picked up on the street.

My wife is the type who has the kitchen floor so clean you can eat off it. So, who wants to eat off the kitchen floor?

Spotlight on Haliburton County Centennial

By Bruce Mills

It has taken 100 years of adventure-packed living for the citizens of Haliburton County to reach the point in time where they can celebrate the Centennial Birthday of their county, and to show and talk about what they and their forbears have accomplished over that seemingly long period of time.

Of equal value to Haliburton County, is that which John Heron, the celebrated career writer of the Royal Bank of Canada monthly letters wrote in his January 1966 essay on Canada's Centenary:

"Our past was not drab. It was exciting in its happening and diversified enough to suit the most exacting storyteller. It was full of sharp contrast, both in motive of exploration and method of settlement. Study of that past concerns us as Children of our fathers; what we do at the time of our centenary concerns us as fathers of our children."

The men and women we think back on at this centenary of Haliburton County paid the price of what we are and have here to-day.

And now-what Can We Do: We who are alive to-day in the 100 th Birthday year. This will concern every citizen in his or her own way - to display, or talk about, or sing about, or whatever, in The Haliburton showcase.

That showcase is as broad as the political and Geographical boundaries of the County, and as deep as the total of its population.

Many kinds of exciting exhibition techniques and devices can be used to welcome and stimulate the interest of our citizens, neighbours, and visitors to a comprehensive look at the century of happenings in our Haliburton County Community, and the junior communities within it.

It is because the base of the Community fabric is built from each, and every one of its people, - past and present; Their individual lives and services, that the showcase can contain the products of each member's imagination, enthusiasm and effort.

WHAT DO WE SHOW People

I think all would agree that the primary focus would be upon our human resources. People at work and at play; people of all ages, occupations, races and aspirations, with each one extending a warm hand of sincere concern for the others and a genuine welcome to our visitors from other communities throughout our "Global Village;- for we are all inter-dependent. Each one to other in some manner.

EDUCATION

Our assets for the education of our children and adults.- Our network of communication, vital to us all.-Our schools, libraries, Museums, newspapers and other media of expression.

SOCIAL SERVICES

The work of our doctors and nurses, our hospitals and clinics. - Also the many ways in which the Welfare of our citizens is assured by the county, its municipalities, service clubs and organizations.

OUR LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Our riches from the surface, of, and below and above the ground - the breadth and beauty of our forests, lakes and streams - and minerals, clean air and water- and the concern and actions we take to battle pollution and abuse of those precious resources.

RECREATION

The variety of our sports and recreation in all seasons of the year.

TRAVEL AND TOURISM

Our hotels, lodges, tourist homes, and visitor entertainment. Our thousands of property owning summer residents and their effect on the life and assets of the county.

VISUAL LITERARY AND PERFORMING ARTS

The development and interest in the fine arts; also the many and interesting works of our citizens engaged with a variety of crafts.

POLITICAL STRUCTURE AND GROWTH

Our municipal affairs and relationships with and between our junior municipalities - also our senior governments, provincial and federal.

INDUSTRY, MANUFACTURING AND EXPORT

As an example - all the way from logging the forests to finished lumber and by-products.

BUILDING CONSTRUCTION

Our industrial, commercial and domestic buildings with special attention to the sponsors, designers and many tradesmen - who planned, built and now maintain them.

TRANSPORTATION

Our network of land, water and air transport facilities - our colourful railway - bus and taxi services - the development of our primary and secondary roads system.

RETAIL STORES AND SHOPS

Throughout the century, cheerfully serving citizens and visitors with a wide variety of goods and services - and not to forget the early blacksmiths, harness shops, machine shops, garages, marinas, the old general stores, hardware, barber and food shops and many more.

PUBLIC UTILITIES The growth of our public utility services provided to our citizens such as hydro and telephone; the tortuous building of the pole lines and networks, and the 24 hour services given by their workers in all kinds of weather.

There are no doubt other exhibits for the showcase, but in any event Let us all join in and go to the Birthday Party.

We dropped into Haliburton Forest's cookhouse for coffee and a light lunch Feb. 3 and noted a great deal of snowmobile activity around there. My party of HCSA members included a number of Donald Windigos. Several Horseshoe Lakers were seen there and a group of Tall Pines People passed through that day. This Dorset club is a frequent visitor.

Dorothy Shantz, who presides over the cookhouse and is responsible for the excellent food at Haliburton Forest, listed many of the distant points from which snowmobilers have travelled to enjoy the superb facilities. These include Kingston, Dunnville, Chatham, Windsor, with clubs reporting in from Nobleton, Etobicoke and other places. Dorothy's dining room has become a favoured meeting place for local snowmobilers from Dorset, Dwight, Minden and Haliburton.

The Haliburton County Snowmobile Association will gratefully accept the assistance of all volunteers to guide groups of snowmobilers to the picnic site Sunday, Feb. 17. We need workers in the Minden area, Haliburton, and all other starting points in the County. For those who cannot ride in an organized group we recommend use of the HCSA trail map. Please note, there is a trail (unmapped) from West Guilford to Redstone but you should inquire locally as to its routing from either Pine Lake or Green Lake.

The picnic site is the beach at the North end of Redstone Lake, where the HCSA will provide fires for cooking and warmth, and plenty of hot tea and coffee. Bring your own food, precooked, or cook it on the spot. And if this is too much effort the base camp of Haliburton Forest is only ten minutes away.

Departure time from the various points have not been scheduled. These will depend on the number of riders who turn out and on the number of guides available. We anticipate the first groups will move off about 9 a.m. Don't keep the guides waiting. After 10:30 you may be left on your own.

The second HCSA dance party was re-scheduled for March 16. If you enjoyed the last one get your tickets early for this. To avoid over-crowding it is necessary to limit admission. But your ticket in advance so you won't be left out in the cold.

Need a new snowmobile suit, helmet or boots? These three valuable items are the prize to be drawn at the March 16 dance. Draw ticket will be on sale soon at $1.00.

Feb. is shaping up (as it usually does) to be the coldest month of the winter. Just a reminder that when you are travelling at a brisk speed temperatures in the zero range become the equivalent of forty below or colder, especially on a broad lake surface where the wind can get a good sweep. On Haliburton Lake last Sunday one of our party, a man with five or more years of snowmobiling experience, had both cheeks severely frost-bitten because he depended upon his helmet face shield for protection rather than wearing an unsightly face mask. Granted, those knitted or leather masks add nothing to a person's good looks, but they do give excellent protection from the wind. Wear one, or at least carry one with you. You'll find a time when you'll need it.

New Warm Snowmobile Trails

Haliburton Forest and Wild Life Reserve Limited was the first private enterprise to offer groomed snowmobile trails of any consequence, 150 miles of them by 1971.

Then, with the invention of the WIND CHILL FACTOR, we considered it our duty to combat the FACTOR and to provide our customers with warm trails.

Now, after several years of planning, designing and testing we offer 37 miles of cozy, balmy Snowmobile trails which all go DOWNWIND. By travelling on these special trails at wind speed, snowmobilers completely avoid the dreaded Factor.

The fee for the use of our snowmobile trails, even these warm trails, is still only $2. per person per day.

Current Events 1973

By Eleanor D. Walker
There doesn't seem much news given at January Meeting of Minden W.I., January, a lot of elections etc. The Curling Club had a really good time on Jan. 7. A former Minden boy, Ivan Cox, won the Xmas Regatta race at Anacapa Yacht Club in California.

High School Principal and his son saved two lives on Kashagawigamog Lake.

The second annual Kasha-gawigamog Snowmobile Rally was a success.

Tenders for Minden Area came for some staff cabins to be built.

Glee Club again brings honour to High School and Area.

Two local Kinsmen honoured at Minden Banquet, Lyle McKnight and Eldon Deacon.

Minden Rotary Club donated time clock to Arena.

Our Doctor Koval has done himself proud in his acupuncture studies in China. The Minden Police had a busy time over the holiday: so many accidents but no one killed.

Three cottagers fought forest fire, only one cottage destroyed. Minden Post Office has a new look, so much more room, a really busy place in the summer with flocks of tourists and people in cottages; can remember when there was only one cottage on Mountain Lake, at Sandy Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Upper of Toronto; we were friends for years.

We have a new business in Minden which seems to be a little of everything; I found their ice cream really good. A runaway truck hit the Haliburton Bus going out of Minden, no one was injured and the bus soon was on its way.

The Hyland Crest Senior Citizens Home gave a dinner for the over 70's on June 19, we had a very good dinner and pleasant evening.

We have had some very

Uncle Dudley

One of the last early pioneers of Stanhope Township Mrs. Rose Davis (Aunt Rose to many) passed to her well earned reward a few months ago.

Mrs. Davis was a sister of Richard and Walter Johnston and married Sam Davis in the early years of the century.

They took up their residence on the shore of Hawk River. The brother Alfred was a near neighbour, who came first I am not sure.

When my father and I were in business at Canarvon the Davis family were among our valued customers. In the winter months we often had a fine meal of Halls and Hawk Lake trout, caught through the ice and they were always willing to share the fruits of the chase.

It was quite a day's journey, the 8-10 miles from Hawk River to Canarvon and mother always saw that these folk had a good warm meal.

As they did not come to town too often, naturally their purchases covered a long list, two or three pages would be filled with the listing of their purchases.

I quite well remember that often while we would record a turnover of $50.00 - $75.00, there might not be $20.00 cash flow as they term it now.

With the passing of this fine pioneer another record is closed, Mrs. Davis was 96 years old a day before she died.

A son Robert died a few years ago, and one daughter is still living in Toronto.

My thanks goes out to Mrs. A. Oliver on furnishing much information that I had forgotten.

See you next week.

Peace be with you!

bad forest fires. The highway going to Carnarvon is cutting off over half a mile from Minden, very rough now but when it is paved will be an improvement.

The children have supervised playgrounds.

We have had some rain after a real dry spell. We had a good fair, fine weather and lots of things to see also eat. Some quilts also other sewing, lovely flowers and vegetables. Such a lot of good cooking and pickles. Seemed to be a lot going on all afternoon; everyone had a good time I'm sure.

The W.I. Bus Trip for Colour tour was a rainy morning but cleared up at Vankougnnet and they enjoyed a singsong at the old church then on to Orillia for a good dinner and some shopping. The trees were just as nice near home as going away, no place like home, was a really nice day even if it did rain some.

Al Greir is going to coach a Hockey Team out west.

There is a good piece written about Kenesis Lake, was up there about 40 years ago and caught some lovely fish, we took a canoe on the car: stayed all night: Byron enjoyed it more than I, also was quite cold before morning.

Our Public Library has a lot of new books, fine for us in cold weather. Mr. Herb Shorter caught two fine trout in Gull River .87 people passed Red Cross Swim Tests, the swimming classes are a fine thing for the county. We have so many lakes and so much water.

Nine Minden Boys walked 45 miles to raise $1,500 for Anglican World Outreach; they came in tired but happy.

We are asked to restrict our energy use. They will go some if they do better than I, bake potatoes, apples and things like that on an oil stove also all hot water for dishes etc. the same place. My electric bill for last three months under $12., and I did not eat out often. We need a Wolf Bounty, very few deer taken last season.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Ten-year-old Ross is a slight, healthy boy with dark eyes, light brown hair, fair skin and a shy, appealing smile.

Friendly and outgoing, Ross seems to be on good terms with everyone he meets. He gets on well with other children and adults warm to him at once. He is a co-operative child, eager to please.

Interest and curiosity mean that Ross enjoys all new experiences. He has only once been camping in a tent and he loved it — as he loves any kind of adventure that he can share with friends.

Ross is in Grade Four, a year behind what might be expected at age 10. Though not a scholar, he does not need special education and will continue in regular classes.

Soccer and skating are this lad's favorite sports. He enjoys drawing and has lately developed a passion for playing monopoly. Ross likes to sing. His choice for music to listen to is rock and in reading it is animal stories. He looks for game shows and Westerns on television.

Ross needs a home where the atmosphere is stimulating without pressure. There should not be many other children so that the parents will have much time to devote to him. He could be the youngest child or a big brother to one or two small ones.

To inquire about adopting Ross, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Three words; not much of a mouthful but it says a lot about Schwandt's Homecare Building Centre. With today's inflation it's almost impossible to find any business that delivers all three. Some places advertise low prices; but you sacrifice selection and service. You know the kind of place we mean. Schwandt's offers all three. You can bet on it. And that's really a mouthful. Try us for all of your building or redecorating needs. You'll find that just three words really say a lot.

Annual Meeting

United Church women meet

The annual meeting of the Lindsay Presbyterian United Church Women was held in Queen St. United Church, Lindsay, on Jan. 30.

The highlight of the morning session was the visit of Very Rev. Bruce McLeod, Moderator of the United Church of Canada introduced to the meeting by Mrs. Roeske.

In his most interesting remarks he told us that the moderator is a person who has an opportunity to be the centre of the churches from Newfoundland to B.C. and to sense the family in the church.

A major happening of the church to-day is a new awareness of God as the third person of the trinity.

In the U.C.W. we have a terrific sense of variety in the family of the United Church. We go out in the world to meet God's spirit and to declare what we know of it through Jesus Christ. There is a new awareness of the spirit and into the presence of God. We are all bound together spiritually and physically in the love of God.

There was a brief question and answer period at the close of his address and he was asked to play and sing which he most graciously did, we were led in singing "It's a Small World after All".

An impressive 'In Memoriam' service was conducted by Miss V. Neal, Victoria Road and Mrs. Gilson, Little Britain. The Worship Service was presented by Mrs. Wellman, Bethel, following along the Theme of the meeting, "Where are you? Where is my Brother?" Responsive readings of "Voices from the Private World and Calling to the people of the Church" followed the story "Which Way", closing with the singing of: T'ward Peace and justice, Lord, Use my mind; For understanding, Lord, Use my mind; T'ward brotherhood, my Lord, Use my mind; O Lord, Use my mind.

Rev. R. L. Rumble of the Ecumenical School of the Deaf, Toronto, was introduced by Mrs. Tillis. He told us that the United Church is becoming involved in 2200 who are deaf across Canada and some of the problems he encounters as he travels across the country. There are none so deaf as those won't hear. Jesus said 'Go into the world and preach the gospel to all creatures'. We can change things as Christians who love the unlovely. Take what we have and then share it with others. Don't count your days but make your days count; do something for someone else; none can stand so tall as the one who can get down and help someone who couldn't get up. Where is my brother? my brother is everywhere. Where I am needed. We have only one life to live, give of ourselves in Jesus name. The installation of the new officers was then conducted by Rev. L. Dorsch.

Past Pres., Mrs. A. Gillis, Cameron; Pres., Mrs. B. Roeske, Burnt River; Vice-Pres., Mrs. G. Gilson, Little Britain; Mrs. G. Stewart, Brechin; Mrs. W. English, Cameron, Secretary, Mrs. E. Graham, Fenelon Falls; Treasurer, Mrs. J. Coburn, Fenelon Falls.

The sing-songs that opened the afternoon report, session was very capably led by Rev. G. Hoffstetter, Janetville.

Mrs. Roeske took the chairman, spoke briefly and closed the meeting with the courtesy.

Gems of Truth

by Mr. "B"

The Pillars Examined

The Book we call the Bible is the Word of God and as such is the revelation of His thoughts, mind, will and purposes given to us by the Holy Spirit, through Divinely chosen human beings or persons. Thus the Bible is the Divine authentic and authoritative revelation from God, the voice of the Almighty Creator in human utterance.

Because the Bible is the Word of God, it is enduring and indestructible. Like its Divine Author it is self-existent. It needs no human defence to save it from defeat and destruction. It is as indestructible as God Himself. No matter what its critics say, it is as little affected as the moon is by a barking dog.

Joseph Barker was once asked what was the best reply to attacks upon the Bible. His answer was "Circulation". Let people read it and be familiar with its contents, it can defend itself. All Scriptures are given by God who reveals Himself therein. If it can be proven that some parts of Scriptures are not the Word of God, who knows which part or if any part is dependable. The Book stands together or it is not to be trusted.

If the Scriptures are not authentic, nor reliable, nor the Word of God, would Jesus Himself have put so much testimony to them. He upheld Divine authorship and authority intelligently, honestly and sincerely because He knew from whence they came. Surely there is no greater voice of authority concerning the Scriptures among men to-day or ever lived in the past. What a pity that some people are determined to disbelieve and take their own way in handling the Divine Volume.

Scripture Meditation:
2 Tim. 3:16 "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness."
Food for thought: Truth is what God says about a thing.
